PRE-FIRE AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE ERRORS

Pre-Fire Context

Before the fire occurred on December 10th, 2018, Tyler Lofall had already been involved in a remodel job in Damascus, Oregon. He was hired to help save the home of Joanna Lee Bozian, an autistic hoarder, who had become a friend. This remodel job eventually turned into a significant restoration project after a fire damaged the property.

Development of Errors and Pre-Fire Events

Tyler Lofall was deeply involved in the restoration of Joanna's house. He had managed the repairs and upgrades meticulously, which led to a significant increase in the property's value. Despite his diligent work, a series of unfortunate events began to unfold:

1. Initial Verbal Agreement: Initially, a verbal agreement was established, as evidenced by direct interactions with the insurance company, which was permissible only under the homeowner's authorization.

2. Written Contract (April 17th, 2019): A formal written contract was executed, witnessed by Wyatt Bender and Angela Miles, outlining the scope of work and the financial arrangements.

3. Irrevocable Assignment of Benefits (June 24th, 2020): Joanna Lee Bozian assigned the insurance claim proceeds directly to Tyler Lofall, acknowledging substantial completion of the required work. This was also witnessed by Wyatt Bender.

(4.) Exhibit 21 on the Master Exhibit List

According to the documents, Exhibit 21 provides critical evidence related to the alleged misconduct by the heirs, which includes:

1. The heirs falsely claiming to the mortgage company that Tyler Lofall had illegitimately created the Assignment of Benefits (AOB).
2. Omitting Tyler's deposit information in their communications with the insurance company, effectively redirecting the insurance proceeds to themselves.
3. Creating disruptive conditions and causing significant damage to the property, thereby impeding Tyler's efforts to manage the property effectively.

HEIRS' SITUATION AND AOB FROM TYLER'S PERSPECTIVE

Heirs' Involvement and Actions

The heirs of Joanna Lee Bozian played a significant role in complicating Tyler's efforts to secure the payment for his work. Despite not having visited the property in 20 years, they initially showed no resistance to signing the necessary documents for the insurance payout. However, their behavior quickly changed, and they engaged in several deceptive actions:

1. Misrepresentation to Mortgage Company: The heirs claimed that Tyler had illegitimately created the AOB, which delayed the release of funds.
2. Financial Misconduct: They omitted Tyler's bank deposit information in communications with the insurance company, redirecting the proceeds to themselves.
3. Destructive Behavior: The heirs caused significant damage to the property, further complicating the situation for Tyler.

Perspective on the Value of AOB

From Tyler's perspective, the Assignment of Benefits (AOB) held substantial value. He had completed significant work on the property, which increased its market value by $300,000, and had incurred expenses using his retirement savings. The AOB was supposed to secure his payment for this work. The government's failure to protect his rights and allowing the heirs to misappropriate the funds through fraudulent means caused Tyler severe financial and emotional distress.

REVIEWING THE COMPLAINT AND EXHIBITS

Review of the Complaint and Exhibits

The complaint filed by Tyler Lofall against the Estate of Joanna Lee Bozian and heirs Teague Bond and Zac Bond outlined several key points:

1. Breach of Contract: The AOB and other written agreements between Tyler and the decedent's estate established a valid contract, which the heirs breached.
2. Tortious Interference: The heirs intentionally interfered with the contractual agreements, leading to financial losses for Tyler.
3. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED): The heirs' actions caused significant emotional distress to Tyler.
4. Fraud: The heirs engaged in fraudulent actions, including redirecting insurance proceeds and causing damage to the property.

COMPELLING NARRATIVE AND SUPPORT FOR TYLER

Compelling Narrative

Tyler Lofall's dedication to helping Joanna Lee Bozian and restoring her property was met with a series of legal and financial challenges orchestrated by the heirs. Despite completing substantial work and significantly increasing the property's value, Tyler's rightful compensation was obstructed by fraudulent actions and procedural failures.

Referenced Fact List

1. Verbal Agreement and Written Contract: Initial verbal agreement and written contract executed on April 17th, 2019 (witnessed by Wyatt Bender and Angela Miles).
2. Irrevocable Assignment of Benefits: Formalized on June 24th, 2020, with substantial completion of work acknowledged.
3. Insurance Proceeds: Estimate approved by Assurant was $111,943.56, of which only a partial payment was received.
4. Fraudulent Actions by Heirs: Misrepresentation to the mortgage company, omission of deposit information, and causing property damage.
5. Impact on Tyler: Financial losses, emotional distress, and significant property value increase due to his efforts.

Support for Tyler

Tyler's proactive measures and extensive experience in disaster project management were evident in his meticulous documentation and handling of the repairs. The wrongful actions by the heirs, compounded by the legal system's failures, resulted in significant harm to Tyler, both financially and emotionally. The Assignment of Benefits (AOB) was intended to secure his compensation for the work completed, and its misappropriation by the heirs was a clear injustice.

3. Evidence Ignored by Police: Officers Gunnarson and Blyth ignored clear evidence of Macy's violent behavior, including her wielding a hammer and a hose to destroy Tyler's property. This evidence was documented but not considered during the arrest (E2.5 West Linn Reports.TRIAL EXHIBITS, p. 12-14)【25†source】.

Property Loss: The wrongful arrest resulted in Tyler losing access to his property, which was left unsecured by the police. This led to further theft and damage, compounding his financial losses (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 10)【26†source】.

Witness Tampering: The heirs and their associates, including Wyatt Bender, were involved in witness tampering. Wyatt, who witnessed key agreements, was manipulated by the heirs to undermine Tyler's claims (E1.1 COMPLAINT A. CLACKAMAS COUNTY CLAIM 21CV02575, p. 16-18)【10†source】.

TIME PERIOD: IN JAIL (MARCH - JULY 2022)

Introduction and Context

Following the false arrest on March 6th, 2022, Tyler Lofall faced a series of injustices and rights violations while in jail. These violations included deprivation of rights, collusion between the attorney and judge, denial of access to the court, and various forms of mistreatment. This narrative aims to detail the events and provide a comprehensive account supported by referenced facts.

Detailed Narrative with Referenced Facts

Initial Incarceration: Tyler Lofall was initially incarcerated on March 6th, 2022, following a false arrest. This set the stage for the numerous rights violations he would face while in custody (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 1).

1. Deprivation of Rights: From the outset, Tyler was deprived of basic rights, including the right to adequate legal representation and the ability to prepare a defense. His attorney colluded with the judge, undermining his case (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 1-3).

2. False Charges: The charges against Tyler were based on false allegations by Macy Galla, who had a history of violent behavior and false accusations. This context was ignored by the authorities (E2.5 West Linn Reports.TRIAL EXHIBITS, p. 4-6).

3. Attorney-Judge Collusion: On multiple occasions, Tyler's attorney Rubin Medina colluded with Judge Steele and the DA, Rebecca Portlock, to delay and undermine his trial. This included fabricating COVID test results to cancel court dates (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 4).

4. COVID Mismanagement: Tyler was falsely reported to have COVID, which was used as a pretext to cancel his trial. This was part of a larger pattern of mismanagement and denial of due process (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 5).

Deletion of Legal Files: On June 20th, 2022, jail staff deleted 62 of Tyler's legal files, specifically targeting his documents to hinder his defense. This action was deliberate and aimed at sabotaging his case (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 7).

Denial of Legal Resources: Tyler was repeatedly denied access to the law library and other legal resources, preventing him from adequately preparing his defense (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 8).

Grievances Ignored: Tyler filed multiple grievances regarding his treatment and the conditions in jail, but these were systematically ignored or dismissed without proper investigation (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 9).

Mismanagement of Health: Tyler contracted COVID in jail due to the authorities' negligence. He was placed in shared cells with COVID-positive inmates, further compromising his health (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 10).

Retaliatory Actions: Jail staff retaliated against Tyler for his complaints and efforts to defend himself. This included withholding meals, denying access to legal resources, and extending his detention without cause (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 11).

Deprivation of Contact Lenses: Tyler was denied his contact lenses, rendering him effectively blind for weeks. This denial of basic medical care was a clear violation of his rights (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 12).

5. Collusion in Court: The collusion between the DA, Tyler's attorney, and the judge was evident during court proceedings. On June 10th, 2022, the trial was canceled based on false information provided by the attorney and DA (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 6).

9. Denial of Court Access: Tyler was denied adequate access to the court, with his hearings being repeatedly delayed or canceled without proper cause. This denied him a fair chance to defend himself (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 8).

Physical and Psychological Abuse: Tyler faced both physical and psychological abuse while in custody. He was subjected to harsh conditions, including extreme temperatures and inadequate medical care (E2.4 COMPLAINT B - 28 proofs, p. 13).

10. Missed Civil Trial: Due to the jail's mismanagement of COVID tests, Tyler missed a critical civil trial, further impacting his ability to seek justice and compensation for his losses (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 9).

11. Macy's Unreliability: Macy was repeatedly caught with methamphetamine and had been in and out of psychiatric wards. Her reliability as a witness was highly questionable, yet she was used to testify against Tyler (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 10).

12. False Accusations by DA: The DA's office, led by Rebecca Portlock, made several false accusations against Tyler, manipulating evidence and testimony to strengthen their case (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 24th 2022, p. 4).

This extended his suffering and hindered his defense (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 10th 2022, p. 13).

17. Macy's Recantation: On several occasions, Macy recanted her statements against Tyler, admitting that she had been coerced and that Tyler was innocent. These recantations were ignored by the court (COURT TRANSCRIPT June 24th 2022, p. 6).

2022

Narrative

False Arrest and Initial Violations

On March 6th, 2022, Tyler Lofall was arrested without a warrant or probable cause by officers Dana Gunnarson and Catlin Blyth. This arrest was based on false allegations by Macy Galla, who had a history of erratic behavior and false accusations. Despite clear evidence of Macy's threats and destruction of property, the police ignored these facts and proceeded with the arrest.

Supporting Evidence: Police reports, witness statements, and court records clearly show the lack of probable cause for the arrest, violating Tyler's Fourth Amendment rights.

Denial of Due Process and Legal Resources

Throughout his incarceration, Tyler faced numerous violations of his due process rights. He was denied access to his contact lenses, resulting in temporary blindness, and was repeatedly denied access to the law library and other legal resources. On June 20th, 2022, jail staff deleted 62 of Tyler's legal files, further hindering his ability to prepare a defense.

Supporting Evidence: Medical records, grievance filings, and IT logs provide clear evidence of these violations. Witness statements corroborate the consistent denial of legal resources.

Retaliation and Property Loss

Tyler faced retaliatory actions from jail staff, including the withholding of meals and legal resources in response to his complaints. Additionally, during his arrest on May 24th, 2022, the police gave his car to a thief, leading to significant property loss.

Supporting Evidence: Grievance filings, witness statements, and police reports document these retaliatory actions and property loss, highlighting the ongoing violations of Tyler's rights.

Collusion and Witness Tampering

Tyler's advisor, Rubin Medina, colluded with Judge Steele and DA Rebecca Portlock to delay and undermine his trial. This included fabricating COVID test results to cancel court dates. Moreover, the DA's office threatened Macy Galla with the loss of her children to coerce her testimony against Tyler.

Supporting Evidence: Court transcripts, emails, and witness testimonies clearly demonstrate the collusion and witness tampering, violating Tyler's Fourteenth Amendment rights.

Blocking AOB and Housing Rights Violations

The state blocked Tyler's Assignment of Benefits (AOB), causing significant financial losses and denying him rightful compensation for his work on Joanna Lee Bozian's house. Furthermore, Tyler was evicted and rendered homeless, violating his housing rights.

Supporting Evidence: Insurance records, financial statements, eviction notices, and witness statements provide indisputable evidence of these violations.

CONCLUSION and Call to Action

The evidence presented in this comprehensive narrative clearly demonstrates the systemic and continuous violations of Tyler Lofall's constitutional rights by Oregon/Clackamas County/the Courts. These violations include financial, housing, emotional, and legal harms, all compounded by the state's actions and inactions.

Call to Action: The courts must recognize these violations and take immediate corrective measures. Any further obstruction is a continuation of these violations, and the responsible parties should be held accountable. The state's ongoing attempts to escape liability through delays and inaction constitute cruel and unusual punishment, directly attacking Tyler's rights and well-being.

This document will articulate the specific rights infringed upon, the direct and indirect harm caused, and the legal and factual basis for each claim.

Rights Violations and Harm

1. False Arrest and Unreasonable Search and Seizure (Fourth Amendment)
    - Argument: On March 6th, 2022, Tyler Lofall was arrested without a warrant or probable cause. This arrest was based on false allegations made by Macy Galla, who had a documented history of erratic behavior and false accusations.
    - Harm: The arrest led to immediate and severe consequences, including Tyler's wrongful incarceration, disruption of his life, and the beginning of a series of legal battles.
    - Evidence: Police reports, witness statements, and court records demonstrate the lack of probable cause and the illegality of the arrest.
2. Denial of Due Process (Fourteenth Amendment)
    - Argument: Throughout his incarceration, Tyler was repeatedly denied his due process rights. This included being deprived of access to legal resources, such as the law library, and the destruction of his legal files by jail staff on June 20th, 2022.

- Harm: These actions severely hindered Tyler's ability to prepare his defense, leading to prolonged incarceration and unjust legal outcomes.
- Evidence: Grievance filings, IT logs, and witness statements provide clear evidence of these violations.

3. Cruel and Unusual Punishment (Eighth Amendment)

- Argument: Tyler was subjected to inhumane treatment, including the denial of necessary medical care, such as contact lenses, which led to temporary blindness. He was also exposed to COVID-19 due to jail mismanagement and faced retaliatory actions, such as withholding meals and legal resources.
- Harm: These actions caused significant physical and psychological harm, exacerbating Tyler’s stress and anxiety.
- Evidence: Medical records, grievance filings, and witness statements corroborate these claims.

4. Violation of Housing Rights (Fourteenth Amendment)

- Evidence: Eviction notices, insurance records, and financial statements demonstrate the impact of these violations.

5. Collusion and Witness Tampering (Fourteenth Amendment)

The DA's office also engaged in witness tampering by threatening Macy Galla to secure her testimony against Tyler.

- Evidence: Court transcripts, emails, and witness testimonies provide clear evidence of collusion and witness tampering.

6. Financial and Emotional Harm

- Argument: The cumulative actions of the state have caused significant financial losses, including legal fees, loss of property, and missed work opportunities. The emotional toll from prolonged legal battles and mistreatment has been severe.
- Harm: Tyler has faced immense financial strain and emotional distress, affecting his overall well-being and stability.
- Evidence: Financial records, psychological evaluations, and medical records support these claims.

Legal Basis for Claims

1. 42 U.S.C. § 1983: Civil action for deprivation of rights. This federal statute allows individuals to sue state actors for constitutional rights violations.
2. Fourth Amendment: Protection against unreasonable searches and seizures.
3. Eighth Amendment: Protection against cruel and unusual punishment.
4. Fourteenth Amendment: Right to due process and equal protection under the law.

CONCLUSION

The State of Oregon, Clackamas County, and the Courts have continuously and systematically violated Tyler Lofall's constitutional rights. The evidence clearly demonstrates the direct and indirect impact of these actions, underscoring the urgent need for corrective measures.

Call to Action

The courts must recognize these violations and take immediate corrective actions to remedy the harm caused to Tyler Lofall.
